PIRE IN WOOSTER STREET.

Two Men Burned to Death. A fire broke out last night, about eight o'clock, in the five story brick building Nos. 24 and 26 Wooster street, that caused a damage of about $65,000. The first, second, third and fourth floors were occupied by Henry Erben, of 316 West Fifty-fifth street, as an organ manufactory, and the fifth floor was used by a society of co-operative tailors. When the fire first started there were about eight persons in the tailor's establishment on the top floor. Several of these escaped by the stairway leading into the street, but three men who were at work in the rear of the workshop were cut off by the flames before they could get away, from the building one of these, William Forden, rushed to a window on the north side and jumped upon a low house beside the burning building, a distance of about twenty-five feet, and was taken off by the firemen. The remaining men, James and John McSherry, managed to get down on the fourth floor, but they were there cut off by the dames. They then ran to a window in the rear, and called out to the ground for them to jump on, but, before the firemen could get to them or give them any assistance, the fire overtook them and they were burned to death. One died as he leaned out of the window shouting for help, and the other fell upon the floor just inside it. As soon as the flames had somewhat abated the firemen took out the dead bodies and removed them to the Eighth precinct station house, from where they were sent to the Morgue.

Erhen & Co.'s loss is estimated at $50,000, and that of the Tailors' Union $0,000. The building is the property of Edward Kings, and is supposed to be injured to the extent of $10,000. fire first started there were

FIRE ON BROADWAY.

Goods Valued at $250,000 Destroyed. About three o'clock yesterday morning a police nan of the Fifth precinct, while patrolling his post, discovered smoke issuing through the gratings of the building Nos. 327, 329, 331 and 333 Broadway. the building Nos. 327, 328, 331 and 333 Broadway. He immediately gave an alarm, and in a few minutes the firemen were on the spot. Upon forcing in the doors it was found the flames had already made considerable headway among the silks and dry goods, with which the place was heavily stocked. The engines were soon at work, but it was only with the greatest difficulty the fire could be got under. The building is a four story iron front, the property of the Barciay estate, and was damaged to the amount of about $3,000. Oberholser & Keefer, who occupied the lower floor of the building, are insured for $50,000.

The stock of William Skinner, who carried on business on the second-floor, was damaged to some extent by the snoke and water, but the exact amount lost by the firm cannot be ascertained for a day or two. Freidlander, Stitch & Co., the occupants of the upper floors, also suffered to some slight extent by the fire. All the parties in the building were insured in several of the metropolitan and provincial companies.

ing in Greenpoint avenue, near Franklin street, Greenpoint, he found the skeleton of a human being and immediately reported the fact to Captain Rhodes, of the Seventh (Brooklyn) precinct. The Captain, with Sergeant Hoadley and a number of officials and citizens, immediately repaired to the seene, and there found the bones of a human being, apparently a female of about sixteen years of age, but no skull, clothing or trinkets were visible.

The police gathered up the bones and took them to the station house, where they await the direction of Coroner Whitehill. During the afternoon Captain Rhodes, Sergeant James Fielding and two prominent citizens connected with the Brooklyn press visited the seene and delved and raked for the missing skull, but they failed to find it.

The building under which these human remains were found was at one time occupied as a brauch of the Mechanics and Traders' Bank, during 1867 and 1868. It was then unoccupied for a few menths, after which the Oriental Base Ball Club took possession of it. This club having vacated it, it was taken, in December, 1868, for a butcher shop, by John Schmall, and is used for that business now.

The building is raised on spiles and the skeleton was discovered under it. An unusual excitement prevails at Greenpoint over the discovery of the bones because no skull or clothing could be found near them—not even a tuft of hair. It is believed that a foul murder has been perpetrated.

REFORM ASSOCIATION.

Meeting of the Committee of Fifteen at

The Executive Committee of Pifteen of the Reform Association met last evening at the Fifth Avenue Hotel. There were present, in addition to the committee, other members of the association among whom were General Sigel, Myer Stern, room was open at a little after seven o'clock, but the members came in very slowly, and a sufficient number to transact business did not arrive till nearly nine. The intervening time was passed in desultory conversation on the subject of reform in national, State and munici pal policy, in reminiscences of past political events and speculations concerning the opportunities and probable tactics of the republican party in the next election. In the absence of General Dix the secretary, Roswell D. Hatch, called the meeting to order election. In the absence of General Dix the secretary, Roswell D. Hatch, called the meeting to order and nominated Robert B. Roosevelt temporary chairman. Mr. Roosevelt said:—From the reports received from the various ward committees we find that the numbers are so large that it would have been easy to have made.

A LARGE RNROLMENT from them alone. The number ranged from fifty to 400 names in each ward. He suggested that precautions be taken to effectually prevent the irruption of roughs at the enrolment and stop all attempts at intimidation by the Tammanytes. John Foley being called upon by the Chairman for suggestions of any further business, thought all that remained for the meeting to do was to approve the action of the sub-committee, whose labors are published to-day. Mr. Hatch thought it worthy of notice that Tammany Hall had considered the movement of the Reform Association of such importance that long lists of names had been sent in by the Tammany organization for selection. The list from the Sixteenth ward was headed

BY THE NAME OF JAMES IRVING.

A list, composed mostly of Tammany men, was sent in from the Harry Genet's district. From other districts the preponderance of known Tammuny names was such as to show that a decided effort was being made by that organization to control the registration. It is needless to say, added Mr. Hatch, that these lists were rejected. A list brought

Mr. Hatch, that these lists were rejected. A list brought

who was questioned, came from "Antony Hartman and another man;" that also was laid on the t thie. So far as possible the names of the enrolling officers are selected so as to give equal representation to the American, German and Irish elements. Some of the wards send in as many as six to eight lists, which are all carefully examined, and selections are made as equitably as possible. On motion of Mr. Hatch Mr. Henry Clows was elected treasurer of the committee. At least five hundred letters were received yesterialy suggesting names of persons to be appointed enrolling officers. They come from all quarters, and many of them are from merchants recommending the choice and tendering the services of their employés for the work. The meeting was adjourned subject to the call of the Chair.

Police Justice—Open Charges of a Con-spiracy Against a Respectable Citizen— Judge Hogan Expresses His Opinion of Judge Coulter.

The readers of the Herald will remember that on the 21st day of December last a man named Snedicor, alias Charles Warren, was committed by Judge Hogan, at the Tombs Police Court, on a charge of having had in his possession and of having dis-posed of $10,000 worth of Allentown, Pa., school bonds. From evidence adduced at the examination, and subsequently in the District Attorney's office, it appeared that Snedicor disposed of the bonds to a man name? William Muler, who in turn sold them to a Mr. Dougherty, of Philadelphia. Mr. Dougherty fell back on Muter, who fell back on Snedicor. During the examination Muter was present as a About a month ago a man called on Judge Hogan and requested him to again bring Snedleor, who had in the meantime been indicted by the Grand Jury, before him, that he might make an affidavit Jury, before him, that he might make an adidavit against a man, whose name the party then applying did not seem to know, but whom, it was alleged, was an accomplice of Snedicor's. Judge Hogar requested to know who would corroborate Snedicor's evidence, and was informed that Mr. Muler would. The Judge, it is alleged, said he knew too much about Muler to take his evidence in such a case, and, feeling convinced that there was something wrong in the matter, refused to have anytaing to do with it. About a week later Muler himself appeared before Judge Coulter at the Yorkwill: Police Court, and obtained a warrant for the arrest of a man named Henry C. Cole, whom he swore had given him to bonds, notwithstanding he had previously stated that Sneldicor was the man. Mr. Cole, who is a citizen of the Nineteenta warrd, in which he owns considerable property, was arrested and locked up two days. An examination was then had, and he was committed, the bail baing itsed at $17,000, and Judge Counter promising to meet Mr. Howe, Cole's counsel, at the District Attorney's office the next Monday for the purpose of taking bail. Mr. Howe says he was utterly unable to find Judge Coulter, and it was not until yesterday that he met him, and in this wise:—Judge Coulter, and it was not until yesterday that he met him, and in this wise:—Judge Coulter, and took Sneidicor out of prison up into the examination room for the purpose of examination. As might be expected Judge Hogan was very indignant at this made of procedure, but novertaeless said nothing. There was a large number of persons present, including District Attorney's fellows and Sullivan, Messers. Howe and Muler and several other witnesses. Mr. Howe at once walvod an examination, stating to Judge Coulter had he believed the whole thing a conspiracy for the purpose of getting Snedicor out of prison and of getting and the rease was not one of prison and of getting find of Mr. Cole, who, it will be remembered, is a principal witness against Joshua Muler, the alleged counterfeits. Mr. against a man, whose name the party then applying did not seem to know, but whom, it was alleged
